Prelude

Call to Worship

Revelation 5:9–10

Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation, and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth.

Invocation

*Hymn No. 100

Holy, Holy, Holy!

*Confession of Faith

Westminster Larger Catechism 27–28

Q. 27. What misery did the fall bring upon mankind?

A. The fall brought upon mankind the loss of communion with God, his displeasure and curse; so as we are by nature children of wrath, bond slaves to Satan, and justly liable to all punishments in this world, and that which is to come.

Q. 28. What are the punishments of sin in this world?

A. The punishments of sin in this world are either inward, as blindness of mind, a reprobate sense, strong delusions, hardness of heart, horror of conscience, and vile affections; or outward, as the curse of God upon the creatures for our sakes, and all other evils that befall us in our bodies, names, estates, relations, and employments; together with death itself.

*Psalm 485

O Thou That Hear'st When Sinners Cry

Confession of Sin

(responsive)

Almighty and most merciful Father, We have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep.

We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts.

We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done;

and we have done those things which we ought not to have done;
and there is no health in us.

O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare those, O God, who confess their faults.

Restore those who repent; according to your promises declared to mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord.

And grant, O merciful Father, for his sake; that we may, from now on, live a godly, righteous, and sober life;

to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Isaiah 53:4–6

Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.
