Call to Worship

Psalm 118:14, 17

The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. ...I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the LORD.

Invocation

*Hymn No. 275

The Strife Is O'er, the Battle Done

Scripture Reading

Isaiah 25:6–9

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined. And he will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up death forever; and the LORD GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, “Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.”

Prayer of Confession

(responsive)

Risen Lord Jesus, we come before You on this day of victory, yet we confess that we often live as though the grave still has power over us.

Lord, have mercy on us.

You have conquered sin and death, yet we cling to our sins and walk in our old ways.

Christ, have mercy on us.

You call us to faith, yet like the women at the tomb, we are often fearful, and slow to believe.

Lord, have mercy on us.

Risen Savior, cleanse us from our sin, renew us by Your Spirit, and lift our hearts to rejoice in Your great salvation.

Create in us a new heart, that we may walk in the power of Your victory.

Let us believe the good news of the Gospel. If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation.

Thanks be to God! Through Jesus Christ our Lord, we are forgiven. Alleluia! Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Isaiah 53:6

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.
