Welcome

Call to Worship

Psalm 95:1–3

Oh come, let us sing to the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

Invocation

*Hymn of Adoration No. 92

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

Scripture Reading

1 Peter 2:18–25

Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Pastoral Prayer

*Hymn of Preparation No. 590

Jesus, Master, Whose I Am

Sermon

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

Almighty God, You have called us to follow Your Son, who did not come to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many. But we confess that we are often more concerned with defending our rights than denying ourselves for the good of others. Jesus willingly laid aside His rights, humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death – even death on a cross, so that we might have life. Grant us the grace to follow in His steps, counting nothing too precious to surrender for Your sake and for the good of Your people.

Forgive us, renew us, and strengthen us through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who loved us and gave Himself for us. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.
