Prelude

*Call to Worship

Isaiah 55:1, 6–7

*Invocation & Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Arise, My Soul, Arise

Pastoral Prayer

Confession of Faith

Westminster Shorter Catechism Q. 87

Q. What is repentance unto life?

A. Repentance unto life is a saving grace, whereby a sinner, out of a true sense of his sin, and apprehension of the mercy of God in Christ, does, with grief and hatred of his sin, turn from it unto God, with full purpose of, and endeavor after, new obedience.

*Corporate Prayer of Confession

Merciful and Heavenly Father, we confess that when sin wounds our hearts, we so easily listen to the voice of shame. Like Adam and Eve, we try to sew together fragile coverings and hide from Your presence. Like David, we keep silent while our souls waste away. We confess that we often yield to worldly grief, thus feeling bitter over our ruin, isolating ourselves in secrecy, and believing the lie that there is no way back to Your joy and fellowship. Forgive us, O God. Strip away our pride and self-pity. Turn our worldly grief into true, godly sorrow that flees to the cross. Wash us in the precious blood of Your Son, who despised the shame to bring us home to You. Amen.

*Words of Assurance

Micah 7:19, Romans 8:1, 33–34

He will again have compassion on us; he will tread our iniquities underfoot. You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea. There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.
