Prelude

Welcome & Announcements

The Call to Worship Psalm 36:7–9 & 150:6

How precious is your steadfast love, O God! The children of mankind take refuge in the shadow of your wings. They feast on the abundance of your house, and you give them drink from the river of your delights. For with you is the fountain of life; in your light do we see light. Let everything that has breath praise the LORD! Praise the LORD!

The Invocation

The Hymn of Adoration No. 6 O Come, My Soul, Bless Thou the Lord

The Corporate Confession of Sin

Almighty and merciful Father, we confess that we often live as though our days were governed by chance, or by our own plans and strength. We doubted your goodness when our circumstances were hard. We have been slow to notice your quiet provision, and slower to show mercy to those around us in how we speak to them and act toward them. We have disrespected those in authority over us, and those under our authority, in thought, word, or deed. We have hoarded what you gave us to share, even though you have granted us more than we could ever imagine. Forgive us, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Redeemer. Teach us to take refuge under your wings, and make us faithful in the ordinary places where you have set us. Amen.

The Assurance of Pardon Lamentations 3:22–23

The Pastoral Prayer

The Confession of Faith (Heidelberg Catechism – Q. 27 & 28)

Q. 27 - What do you mean by the Providence of God?
A. The almighty and everywhere present power of God; whereby, as it were, by His hand, He upholds and governs heaven, earth, and all creatures; so that herbs and grass, rain and drought, fruitful and barren years, meat and drink, health and sickness, riches and poverty, yea, all things, come not by chance, but by His fatherly hand.

Q. 28 - What advantage is it to us to know that God has created, and by His providence does still uphold all things?
A. That we may be patient in adversity; thankful in prosperity; and that in all things, which may hereafter befall us, we place our firm trust in our faithful God and Father, that nothing shall separate us from His love; since all creatures are so in His hands, that without His will they cannot so much as move.
